Trademark Application no: MI 1420001, "AIWA"

CCM 188/2020

Dear Sirs / Madams, We would like to inform you that for the brand "AIWA" with no. deposit MI 1420001, an appeal was filed by AIWA Co Ltd.

Please respectfully hire an industrial property advisor to represent you within 90 days.

The Romanian Trademark Law defines, in art. 2 that by representative, we mean:

"(J) Professional representative hereinafter referred to as representative - industrial property advisor who may also have the capacity of representative in proceedings before the State Office for Inventions and Trademarks, hereinafter referred to as OSIM".

The above-mentioned law implementing regulation provides in Rule 4 (1) "The applicant for or proprietor of a trade mark may be represented in proceedings before the O.S.I.M. by an authorized representative who is resident or has its registered office in Romania" and Rule 3 stated: Romanian and is filed with OSIM" and 6 (2): "If the applicant, the owner of a trademark or the person concerned are not represented by a professional representative and do not have their domicile, place of business or any industrial unit or commercial and real commercial territory on the territory of Romania, will establish a service address in Romania and will communicate the same to OSIM in order to perform any procedures before OSIM. "

Therefore, you can contact an industrial property advisor within 90 days of receiving this notification to respond.

If we do not receive a response from you within this period, the Appeals Commission will resolve the appeal on the basis of the documents in the file.

The list of authorized legal advisers can be found on the OSIM website (State Office for Inventions and Trademarks):
